Bethesda, MD (June 1, 2010) – Lucy Gubernick, a senior at Harwood Union High School in Vermont, today became this month’s recipient of The Discus Scholarship, a national college scholarship that provides $2,000 to ten multi-talented high school students each year who demonstrate excellence both inside and outside of school.

A member of the National Honors Society, Lucy completed her high school’s required credits in just three years ranked first in her class. During her three years of coursework, Lucy received multiple school-wide, regional, and national awards including the Frederick Douglass and Susan B. Anthony Award, but it is what she has done during her senior year that makes her stand out.

For her senior year, Lucy is working as an assistant teacher KIPP (Knowledge is Power Program) Academy Charter School in Bronx, NY. Located 230 miles from her home in Vermont, Lucy spends more than ten hours a day at KIPP Academy, Monday through Thursday, tutoring 8th grade students in mathematics and reading.

Lucy epitomizes the mission of The Discus Awards (www.DiscusAwards.com), the organization behind The Discus Scholarship. Launched earlier this year, The Discus Awards look beyond test grades and athletics to recognize students whose multi-dimensional talents and passions span at least three of ten attributes, including community service, work, technology, athletics, academics, and the arts.

The $2,000 Discus Scholarship is awarded to one Discus Awards winner each month of the school year. In addition to becoming eligible for a Discus Scholarship, winners of the Discus Awards are profiled on The Discus Awards site (www.discusawards.com/winners) and Facebook page, providing them with a powerful new tool for showing colleges the full range of their diverse strengths and interests. Students can apply for a Discus Award throughout the year.

Since its soft launch last November, the Discus Awards have attracted tens of thousands of nominees from every state in the U.S. Winners are selected by a judging panel of teachers, counselors, and education professionals.

“With her energy, enthusiasm, and commitment to academics, community service and the environment, Lucy exemplifies everything the Discus Scholarship stands for,” said Devin Schain, CEO of the Discus Awards and Campus Direct. “At a time when it’s harder than ever to pay for college, we’re giving recognition and support to the kind of leaders who will thrive in a world that increasingly requires creative thinking, dedication, and a wide range of strengths.”

Students may nominate themselves for a Discus Award at www.DiscusAwards.com, or be nominated by parents, teachers, counselors, coaches, or friends. They are then asked to submit references and write short essays describing their accomplishments in three out of ten major categories, or attributes, of student life: Academics, Arts, Athletics, Community Service, Faith, Government, Green, Technology, Work, and Other Achievements.

To show that they are more than just words on a page, nominees also are encouraged to upload photos and videos that illustrate their achievements.

The Discus Awards were created by Campus Direct, a leading educational services company, and Recognition Media, a producer of major awards programs including The Webby Awards and The Telly Awards.
